

KAPPA SIGMA FRATERNITY GAMMA-RHO CHAPTER

20th ANNUAL A.L. SLONAKER HALL OF FAME AWARDS

November 10, 2006

Welcome.....

TO THE 20th ANNUAL A.L. SLONAKER HALL OF FAME & 91st ANNIVERSARY AWARDS BANQUET

When the local Delta Phi Fraternity affiliated with Kappa Sigma in 1915 as the Gamma-Rho chapter, its members established a tradition of excellence and brotherhood which has been cherished and nurtured by each succeeding generation of members.

As of November 10, 2006, approximately 1,500 men have been initiated into the Brotherhood. There are now approximately 1,100 living Gamma-Rho alumni who, with few exceptions, were members of an active chapter that was the clear leader on the University of Arizona campus. Year after year, as individuals and as a group, the men of Gamma-Rho have distinguished themselves with high academic standards, excellence in athletics, and campus leadership.

The dimension of brotherhood has always been the chapter's greatest strength. Many close ties which began in the chapter have flourished for entire lifetimes. Large numbers of alumni are residents of the same communities, while others still sharing the bond live across the country from each other. The common interests of Gamma-Rho brothers have changed in many cases but the beginnings of friendship always go back to their association in the fraternity.

While this year marks our 91st year on the Arizona campus, it also is the 19th Annual Hall of Fame Awards Banquet. Conceived as a way of honoring alumni for outstanding achievements, this award has become an integral part of the tradition at Gamma-Rho. Inductees are among a select group of alumni. Recognition is given to those who have excelled in their career, or in their service to the community and/or to the fraternity. In conjunction with the A.L. Slonaker Hall of Fame inductees, Gamma-Rho also honors an alumnus as the Michael Cagalj Man of the Year, and recognizes several other alumni and undergraduates for awards.

We hope you enjoy your weekend and plan to make it back in the near future.

Brad Powell '92

Brother Powell was initiated at the Epsilon-Gamma chapter at Louisiana Tech University on September 23, 1992. As an undergraduate, Brad held the offices of guard, pledge educator, alumni chairman, grand master of ceremonies, and grand master. He achieved Master of the Ritual (certificate #80) in 1997. Additionally, he served as an undergraduate delegate to the 59th Biennial Grand Conclave in Dallas, TX and as an alumni delegate to the 61st Biennial Grand Conclave in New Orleans, LA.

As an alumnus, Brother Powell served as alumnus advisor at Kappa-Alpha Chapter at UNLV during their re-colonization in 2003-2004, as assistant DGM in 2003-2004, and district grand master since Fall of 2004. He has also served as deputy ritualist for the Kappa Sigma Ritual Commission, deputy commissioner for the A Greater Cause Commission, and was recently elected as deputy commissioner for the Kappa Sigma Leadership and Education Commission. At this summer's leadership conference in Salt Lake City, UT, Brad was awarded "Outstanding DGM".

Aside from his involvement with Kappa Sigma Fraternity, Brad is a member of the Louisiana Tech Alumni Association. He also has a Masters Degree in Public Administration from the University of Oklahoma and is a member of the American Society of Public Administration.

Donald W. Harris '59 (Don)

Brother Donald Harris was born in Brooklyn, New York on July 20, 1938. He is a graduate of Phoenix College where he lettered in football and baseball.

Don came to the University of Arizona where he was initiated into the Gamma-Rho chapter in 1959. He graduated from the U of A with a Bachelor of Arts in 1960 and went on to earn his LL.B. in 1963.

Genuinely devoted to serving his country, Don joined the United States Marine Corps in September of 1961, where here he was commissioned as a second lieutenant. He served in Vietnam from 1965-1966 and was promoted to captain. He received a Navy Commendation Medal for his service as a civil affairs officer for the Third Marine Division I Corps, Republic of South Vietnam.

Don has served as Maricopa County attorney (1976) and as a Paradise Valley judge from 1991-1996. In 1997, Brother Harris served as judge protem for the Maricopa County Superior Court.

Don has served as the president of the Scottsdale Artists School board of trustees in Phoenix and is also on the Kappa Sigma national board of trustees. He serves on the board of trustees for the Temple Beth Israel in Phoenix and has served as a captain with the Israeli Defense Forces in Gaza (2003).

Brother Harris has been named Gamma-Rho Man of the Year, is an inductee in the Gamma-Rho Hall of Fame, and was awarded the John Tower Alumni of the Year Award. In 2004, the Commandant of the Marine Corps presented Don with the Order of the Caribao, a military honor. Don was named an Honorary U of A Varsity Letterman in 1997 and he is also a 32nd Degree Freemason and a Shriner. In addition to these esteemed awards, Don has also volunteered his time to Camp Charles Perlstein in Prescott, the track and field program at University of Arizona, NAACP, the Jewish Federation, the 100 Club (which provides financial assistance to families of injured police officers and firemen), and Kappa Sigma, where Don was a donor to the new house campaign, guarantor on the mortgage, and a House Corporation member since 1987.

Brother Harris is the father of Courtenay Harris Black, David Harris, and the grandfather to Jonah Black, Hannah Harris, and another little girl due this month.

Gene R. Morris '48

Gene enrolled in the University of Arizona to pursue a degree in engineering and pledged Kappa Sigma in 1948. "Kappa Sigma filled a great void in my life. As an engineering student, I had little time or opportunity for social involvement or friendships outside of my college. Kappa Sigma meant the creation of long time friends and, for all practical purposes, brothers to this day."

Brother Morris was married to Irene at the beginning of his senior year – a year in which he embodied 'diligence and commitment' in order to attain his degree on his timeline. "I had to acquire 48 additional units for graduation in June. I carried 20 units per semester, obtained three units by correspondence and five units by examination. In addition, to have sufficient funds to survive, I worked twenty hours per week. Any sleep that I got was purely accidental."

All that hard work reached fruition and he received a Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering in 1951.

Gene held several jobs in civil engineering before starting a long career with the Arizona Department of Transportation. Gene served as a research engineer, eventually attaining the position of director of the Arizona Transport Research Center.

He was involved particularly in surfacing and was instrumental in the development of an asphalt-rubber surfacing for roadways. What began as a local project in Phoenix, with the support of Gene (now a nationally known engineer), was brought to national attention very quickly. Eventually it led to the $1.1 million FHWA Demonstration Project #37 Discarded Tires in Highway Construction in the mid 1970's, in which 35 states were contacted and contracts were let for 43 projects around the country.

Brother Morris, even after his retirement from ADOT in 1983, continues to share his expertise with private companies and serves as a key member of the RPA Technical Advisory Committee, keeping abreast of the latest industry advances.

He was awarded lifetime membership in the Association of Asphalt Paving Technologies (AAPT), and is a fellow in the American Society of Civil Engineers. He is also a member of the ASTM, The American Concrete Institute, and the National Society of Professional Engineers.

He has also been involved in the community, serving on the state of Arizona Governor's Transportation Task Force and the Federal Highway Administration's Committee for Pavement Management. These are two of the many other boards, groups, and workshops he participates in.

In 1972, Gene was named Engineer of the Year by the Arizona Society of Professional Engineers. He also received the esteemed W.J. Emmons Award from the Association of Asphalt Paving Technologies in 1982.

Brother Morris and his wife, Irene, have five children; Duene, Brent, Karen, Leslie, and Tim.

Robert H. Levin '71 (Harv)

Community service is one of the cornerstones of the Gamma-Rho Hall of Fame. Having spent a quarter-century serving the community of Schaumburg, Illinois as a firefighter, Brother Robert Levin has certainly embodied this core value of Kappa Sigma and Gamma-Rho.

Brother Robert “Harv” Levin pledged Gamma-Rho in the fall of 1970, and was initiated the following spring. As an undergraduate, Harv served as grand treasurer prior to receiving his B.A. in 1974.

As Brother Tom Pentz '71 recalls, “Harvey came to us from Chicago, mild and meek. He left us a more worldly and confident Robert Harvey Levin! He had the Baskin-Robbins 31 Flavors Van, which we nicknamed 'The Magic Bus.' It was always an event anywhere we traveled in 'the Magic Bus.'”

Harv was also nicknamed 'the Bear' by the ladies who visited the Kappa Sigma House, while his brothers who were dating the girls, were 'the Wolves.' “They found comfort with 'the Bear,' he was gentle. Harvey always had women around him,” says Tom.

The Bear also had quite the appetite and was not known to pass-up on the late night trips to Jack-in-the-Box.

Robert has spent 25 years on the job in Schaumburg, Illinois as a firefighter. He has advanced up the ranks, first as a firefighter and paramedic, then as a lieutenant. In August of 1997, he was promoted to captain, a rank in which he has served since.

As a firefighter, Brother Levin has received extensive training in emergency medicine and specialized rescue. More recently he has received training for incident command.

He has also been awarded two Village Commendations and two Unit Performance Awards.

The civic responsibilities of a firefighter exceed those demanded by the job itself. Robert has remained very active in the community, serving in a number of charitable projects sponsored by the Schaumburg Professional Firefighters Benevolent Association. Additionally, he has been a supporter of the Schaumburg Athletic Association and the Schaumburg High School Parents Club.

Brother Levin and his wife, Carol, have three children – Victoria, Joseph, and Zachary.

When asked what Gamma-Rho of Kappa Sigma meant to him, “Harv” responded that, “It represents a time of brotherhood and a period of personal growth. I have such great memories of parties, intramural sports, and exploration of the sites that Tucson had to offer.”

Dr. Randal C. Christensen '88 (Randy)

Brother Randy Christensen considers himself the luckiest person alive. He is blessed with a wonderful wife, Amy (also an M.D.), three children: Jane Marie, Reed Coleman, and Charlotte Lee, and is also a successful doctor. Randy has used his skills and blessings to help those less fortunate in the community, and, in doing so, has honored the Gamma-Rho chapter of Kappa Sigma.

Born in Dragerton, Utah in 1966, Randy moved to Tucson when he was in fourth grade. He grew up in a family where he says, “Money was tight, but I never really lacked for anything important. My parents were my first teachers and I am thankful for their guidance and trust.”

Based on his interactions with the Cardio Thoracic Surgery Department, he enrolled in the University of Arizona where he met many members of Kappa Sigma, including Glen Mandigo '85, with whom he quickly became friends. He pledged Gamma-Rho in 1987 and was initiated the following spring.

While pursuing a B.A. in Sociology, he received the Fannin-Stofft Leadership Scholarship in both 1988 and 1989. As an undergraduate, he also worked for Dr. Jack Copeland and was responsible for a computer research team which helped write some of the defining work on heart transplants.

Brother Mark McLear '88 recalls of his undergraduate years with 'Cap'n Cocktail,' “One thing I admired, and still do admire about Randy is that he was and is able to focus in on what it is that he wants to accomplish, and then do it. He knew that he would be a doctor, and never wavered from that. He also knew that at midnight on a Friday he would leave for California for the weekend and then do it. Now, he has yet to invent a bionic kidney like he was told, but then again, maybe he just needs to focus.”

Brother Christensen received his degree in 1990 and then enrolled in Tufts School of Medicine where he graduated in 1995 with his M.D. as well as an M.P.H. (Masters of Public Health.)

He then embarked on his professional career, starting work with the Phoenix Children's Hospital in 1998, where he serves as a faculty physician today.

"I spend about 50% of my time inside the hospital teaching medical students and residents. As part of an academic team, we take care of some of the sickest children in the state. The other 50% of the time I spend as medical director of the Crews'N Healthmobile. This is a mobile medical unit that takes care of homeless children and adolescents."

Randy also holds a faculty position at the University of Arizona School of Medicine and at the Arizona State University School of Nursing. He has been involved as the medical director of Camp AZDA, one of the largest camps for children with diabetes in the U.S. He founded Informed Media, L.L.C. which is involved in the production of high quality educational medical skills videos for residency training programs and practicing physicians. In the fall of 2005, after the Gulf Coast was hit by Hurricane Katrina, Brother Christensen organized and supervised a medical relief team that deployed to towns throughout northeast Louisiana. His team were the first physicians to see patients in devastated small towns such as Angie, LA. The team set up multiple medical clinics and aided with supply centers.

When asked about Gamma-Rho, Randy offered, "There was something about the Kappa Sigs that made me seek out what they referred to as 'brotherhood.' I quickly found a place where I fit in, even though the point was that we were all very different. I think we simply allowed each other to be. In time, I think I realized what brotherhood meant. It didn't matter if we were at a party, a wedding, a road trip, a graduation, or even at the unfortunate shooting of a U of A police officer, we were brothers forever. We would be together in good times and in bad. We would support each other and we would accept each other. In the end, I am better than I could ever be without my brothers. A.E.K.D.B.."

William J. Risner '62 (Bill)

Brother Bill Risner has enjoyed a success career practicing law in Tucson for nearly 40 years. He opened his first firm in 1968, the Law Offices of William J. Risner, shortly after earning his B.A. from the University of Arizona in 1965, and his J.D. degree in 1968.

Bill's practice primarily involved litigation from mostly criminal work in the early years but has centered primarily on civil and personal injury litigation in recent years. He has also engaged in group representation of many types and has been heavily involved in a wide variety of community and political issues with legal facets. Various groups he has represented include homeowner groups, political parties, environmental groups, and even the Associated Students of the University of Arizona in the late 1970's. He also served as a Gamma-Rho House Corporation director in the 1980's and early 1990's.

Brother Risner's involvement with politics includes serving as the election law attorney for the Pima County Democratic Party for several years. He has represented the Democratic Party and the New Party in a successful redistricting case and has also been hired by the Pima County Board of Supervisors on two occasions for law litigation, as well as by F. Ann Rodriguez, the Pima County recorder. In 1996, he served as the Arizona delegate to the Democratic Party National Convention in Chicago.

His legal work has also touched on the Greek community when in a series of reported decisions in Hernandez vs. Delta Tau Delta, he established a social host liability for the service of alcohol to minors in Arizona and, in the first reported case in the United States, established liability for a national social fraternity for the service of alcohol at college chapters.

Now, before anyone reading this who does not know Brother Risner personally gets the impression of a super-serious, straight-laced, legal eagle, realize that like all of us, Bill too has had his share of "Gamma-Rho moments."

Brother Tom Keating '62 recalls a certain incident when Bill was kidnapped by a pledge class. “He was taken prisoner, stripped of his clothing, and marooned naked on some island in Lake Havasu. Now, any pledge brother of Risner's would understand that being naked was not (and is still not) a big problem for him. He and his manhood are very good friends. As it turned out, he flagged down a passing boat and got a lift, somehow, all the way back to Tucson where he greeted the shocked pledge class upon their return to the house.”

On another instance, Brother Risner nearly needed counsel of his own to provide criminal litigation after a certain large cake for a retiring President Harvill was absconded with. CSI Tucson did not need to be called in to solve this heist. The campus police were easily able to track down the culprits and recover what was left of the now trashed cake simply by following the trail of crumbs from the Auditorum, to Sigma Chi (trying to pin it on someone else), and finally to the Kappa Sigma house. University staff walked into the Chapter House and found Bill with cake in his mouth. You will have to ask Bill for the complete story and the results of his punishment.

We believe it is cases like this that led to Bill deciding to be a defense attorney, and to provide all the free legal counsel to young members throughout the years.

CHAPTER WISH LIST

- Dining Room Furnishings – $5,000
- Framed Photos – $1,000
- Patio Furnishings – $2,500
- Chapter Room Locked Book Cases & Archive Cases – $2,500

HOWEVER, our two greatest wishes are:

#1 – To raise funds to pay our debts of approximately $900,000 down to an acceptable level, with a vision of being debt free by 2015.

#2 – To raise $500,000 to $1,000,000 over the next 20 years to establish maintenance and scholarship endowments.

MEMBERS OF THE HERITAGE SOCIETY

MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Some people decide to include charities in their plans because they don't have heirs who need to inherit their assets - or at least not all their assets. Some understand they can improve their tax situation by bequeathing a portion of their estate to a charity. Some decide that they want at least a portion of their accumulated wealth to support organizations they value the most - and in some cases that is Kappa Sigma.

You can help support the educational and housing needs of the chapter by making an estate gift of any size. The foundation asks that you discuss your charitable intentions with the potential executors of your estate to ensure that your final wishes are honored. We also would appreciate notification of your wishes so that we can recognize you as a member of the Heritage Society (we can keep confidential if you wish) and we can make appropriate plans for the future.
